Congratulations to Megan Schwartz from Taylor High School who was the Keynote Speaker at the 2007 Senior Recognition Ceremony at Diamond Oaks Career Development Campus.

During the '07-'08 school year, the 8th grade students will be given the opportunity to learn about different careers and occupations. In "lunch with the professionals," selected 8th grade students will join 4-6 adults from various occupational fields and have a chance to discuss such issues as training, special requirements, education, etc. The luncheon will be one date per month with a different focus on each of those dates. If you are interested in being a part of this program, please contact Dave Henderson, counselor at the middle school. Please call 467-3500 ext. 3504 or e-mail, dhenderson@three-rivers.org.

COLUMBUS — Three Rivers Local School District and the Great Oaks Institute of Technology and Career Development will share one of their outstanding programs during the ninth annual Student Achievement Fair Nov. 13, 2007 at the 2007 Ohio School Boards Association (OSBA) Capital Conference and Trade Show. OSBA will showcase 100 innovative programs at this year's fair, held at the Greater Columbus Convention Center in downtown Columbus. The Business Management Program @ Taylor High School was selected to participate based upon its creativity and positive impact on student achievement. The program was nominated by Dr. Rhonda Bohannon, Superintendent for Three Rivers Local School District.

Students and staff from districts across the state will their innovative programs at the fair. The event offered an opportunity to watch, listen and learn what public school districts in Ohio are doing to enhance learning and achievement in their schools.

The Student Achievement Fair is sponsored by the OSBA Student Achievement Leadership Team, which is an integral part of OSBA's focus on improving public education.

More than 10,000 school board members, administrators, teachers, vendors and guests will attend the four-day OSBA Capital Conference and Trade Show.

The Ohio School Boards Association services include management consulting, continuing education through training programs and workshops, policy development, legal services, legislative initiatives, management services, superintendent and other executive searches, information, technology, employee relations and communications.

Taylor High School Class of 2011!
Get Ready for Freshmen Orientation
YELLOW JACKET KICK-OFF 2007

Dear Parents and Members of the Class of 2011:

This is the 5th year that Taylor High School will be offering the “Yellow Jacket Kick-Off” as a freshman transition experience. With the support of our PTSA, Boosters and the Taylor Alumni Association, we are offering this opportunity for all incoming freshmen. We believe that in understanding the culture of Taylor High School that all freshman participants will have a positive head start. Our research indicates that participants in these types of programs earn higher grades, are more likely to be involved in extracurricular opportunities, and have fewer disciplinary situations than those who do not participate. The day promises to be both informative and fun. I urge all incoming freshmen and their parents to attend our “Yellow Jacket Kick-Off 2007.” Please read the information below, and don’t miss this great opportunity to begin your high school years in a positive and enjoyable way.

What is it?

Yellow Jacket Kick-off 2007 is the first step in your orientation to Taylor High School. It is a one-day orientation camp for incoming ninth graders that is led by a staff of Taylor High School students and teachers.

What will be accomplished?

- ✓ You will receive your schedule and have a chance to find your classes.
- ✓ You will receive your locker assignment and have a chance to visit and open your new locker.
- ✓ You will learn how to get around the Taylor High School building.
- ✓ You will be oriented about important issues by upper class students.
- ✓ You will meet and hear from several teachers, administrators, secretaries, nurse, counselors and other key people at Taylor High School.
- ✓ You will be made aware of the many activities available at Taylor High School.
- ✓ You will make new friends.
- ✓ You will have fun.

When and where is it?

Taylor High School

Friday, August 17, 2007
