MIKE DAVIS

AGE: 42
DAY JOB: 8th-grade religion teacher, Delhi Township trustee
BIRTH OF HIS KING: In 1977, friends paid him $50 to croon at a birthday party
STYLE: Audience Participation Elvis
CATCH HIS ACT: Weekends at Grand Victoria Casino in Rising Sun, Indiana

Davis does a Vegas-style show, luring audience members into the spotlight for a little shake, rattle, and roll. One night he sang "Are You Lonesome Tonight?" to an elderly woman shoved onstage by her friends. Turns out she was a nun. Awkward? Yes. But aren't they both doing the Lord's work? That's kind of how Davis sees it. "For a lot of people," he says, "this [show] is a healing service. They relive memories of the man and can respect him for who he was, not what he became."
