ALYCE BLAKER—"Alyce"

With a stenographic knowledge she goes her way.

We know she'll become a secretary
some day.
Honor Roll.

RALPH BINGLE—"Hoot"

Patiently waiting for the day,
Wherein shall no man work, but play.

RUTH CHANDLER—"Ruth"

As the flower brightens the day with its bloom,

So does her smile brighten the room.

Basketball 1-4; Track 1; Treasurer of Junior Class; "All on Account of Polly."

ELMER CROW—"Coke"

He brightens life by mirth and fun
E'en though there is work to be done.

She's the kind of little girl everyone will love.

Terrace Park 1; "All on Account of Polly"; "Constable Jerry from Fulton's Ferry."

To The Seniors

One aim in life, one great success
With some hard work, forced and compelled
The battle ends with some duress
O! seniors, you are not excelled
By others who have yet to go
To that high aim with equal zeal;
Have pity upon those below.
Let not your mortal tongue be sealed;
May you reach soon that height of fame
Which makes proud Taylor call your name.

C. Handy.
