Seaver Ath-Demic Award & Scholarship

Dennis Seaver Ath-Demic Award and Scholarship

In memory of Dennis M. Seaver Established by Howard and Dorothy Seaver Presented by Lt Col (ret) Chris "Wolfman" Seaver

History

- My brother, Denny, died in a car crash in Jan of 1967 at the age of 18 just after his graduation from Taylor in 1966.
- My parents, Howard and Dottie Seaver, established the award shortly thereafter to recognize one boy and one girl who had excelled both academically and athletically while at Taylor.
- About 10 years ago, my parents felt as though it was time to terminate the award as they were aging and not as visible in the community anymore.
- While I've been away from the community ever since leaving for the USAF Academy and my 40 years of Air Force and civil service, I wanted to ensure their vision for the award continued and was magnified with the addition of a scholarship.
- Last year, donations and admin made things challenging to get the scholarship established. However, the school district, out of an extraordinary amount of generosity, chose to recognize my parents' contribution to the Taylor community by providing $250 to each award winner.
- This year and for the foreseeable future, each winner will receive a $500 scholarship in addition to the trophy.

History

- Up until his health no longer allowed, my father presented this award in person.
- When no longer able, he asked for the school to provide a substitute which was often Mr Don Larrick or the principal at the time.
- Last year, both of my parents, after nearly 75 years of marriage, decided to celebrate their lives elsewhere, and both went to heaven. Mom in March. Dad in October. Last summer, while I was visiting home, Don Larrick brought last year's winners to visit my Dad at his assisted living facility.
- Dad's advice...do good things...and let me know how you're doing.
- That remains my advice to the winners this year...
